

Interactive Engagement Opportunities

JIV DAYA FOUNDATION

The Jiv Daya Foundation offers educational grants to schools in need. Dallas ISD schools had the opportunity to apply for a campus Kindle grant through the Jiv Daya Foundation. Once awarded the foundation gave one to one Kindles for students in 3rd-5th grade. In addition, the campus agreed to a 2 year professional development partnership with the foundation. The Kindles gave students and teachers an opportunity to engage in 21st century learning.

Our service: What do you do?

Technology

High Engagement

Student collaboration

Project-based opportunities

Creation Process

1

Principal Ramirez along with a team of teachers applied for the Jiv Daya Kindle grant online. Teachers had to voice how they were going to use the Kindles in the classroom, if awarded.

Jiv Daya Kindle grant was due by December 2015. January 2016 Stevens Park was sent an award letter. Kindles were ordered and delivered to the campus by February 2016

2

3

The 2016-2017 school year completed year 1 of the partnership

Stevens Park now owns kindles. The foundation regularly scheduled visits to observe Kindle driven lessons on campus. A set of teachers and CICs were sent to trainings with the foundation to learn about new Kindle features and

4

Stakeholders

Stevens Park Principal and teachers along with the Jiv Daya Foundation.

Our Impact

Our students are now able to keep online portfolios such as SeeSaw and Google Docs. They are able to engage in flipped learning, instead of just the traditional model. The Kindles have become another tool for students and teachers to utilize. Teachers are seeing students more engaged, when the learning is done on the Kindle.

Name of Org, Club, Activity: Jiv Daya Kindle Grant

Overview:

The Jiv Daya Foundation offers educational grants to schools in need. Dallas ISD schools had the opportunity to apply for a campus Kindle grant through the Jiv Daya Foundation. Once awarded the foundation gave one to one Kindles for students in 3rd-5th grade. In addition, the campus agreed to a 2 year professional development partnership with the foundation. The Kindles gave students and teachers an opportunity to engage in 21st century learning.

Process: (How did you start it or bring it?)

Principal Ramirez along with a team of teachers applied for the Jiv Daya Kindle grant online. Teachers had to voice how they were going to use the Kindles in the classroom, if awarded.

Stakeholders: (Who is involved?)

Stevens Park Principal and teachers along with the Jiv Daya Foundation. The foundation regularly scheduled visits to observe Kindle driven lessons on campus. A set of teachers and CICs were sent to trainings with the foundation to learn about new Kindle features and tools.

Timeline: (When did it start, was there a pre-process? Where is it at now?)

Jiv Daya Kindle grant was due by December 2015. January 2016 Stevens Park was sent an award letter. Kindles were ordered and delivered to the campus by February 2016. The 2016-2017 school year completed year 1 of the partnership. Year 2 was completed during the 2017-2018 school year. The Kindles are now fully owned by Stevens Park, and the Jiv Daya Foundation continues to provide assistance when needed.

Impact: (What has been the value add for the community?)

Our students are now able to keep online portfolios such as SeeSaw and Google Docs. They are able to engage in flipped learning, instead of just the traditional model. The Kindles have become another tool for students and teachers to utilize. Teachers are seeing students more engaged, when the learning is done on the Kindle.