This year we will be learning Fort Night Dances with a bit of a professional spin on it. My son dances all over the house. Flossing, you name it. He is always talking about Fort Night. Personally, I am not big fan of video games, however if I can make it somewhat educational and fun, then I am all for it. We will have a performance at the end of the year, that I am sure you will enjoy!

Even if your child is not a fan of Fort Night it won't matter! I promise they will have a great time!

My dance trainings is very extensive and includes a professional career in New York City. I have trained in all disciplines of dance. I have taught at Middletown Elementary for 20 years. I have taught children of all ages, at several studios in the Louisville and surrounding areas. The after-school programs are my favorite because I can tailor the program to each child's need and desire to have fun in dance.
